HUNTED FOR 20 YEARS.

Arrest of a Man Charged with Murder and Swindling.

Hillman Carried $80,000 of Life Insurance.

to Have Murdered a Man Who Resembled Htm.

TUCSON, Ariz., Dec. 6.-Among the Huachucas mountains at Salvation fucson, a man was arrested for whom the authorities have been looking for years. He is John W. Hillman and the capture was made by Sam W. Finley, a deputy colector of customs at No gales, and Orran Gemmill, under-sheriff of La Junta. His capture recalls one of the most remarkable case in the annals

In 1875 Hillman and two companions one of them resembling him very closely took a trip into the Buffalo Mountains of Texas to hunt. They were gone sev eral weeks, and when Hillman and one companion returned the man bearing so striking a resemblance to him failed to It is alleged that Hillman, who carried insurance on his life of $80,000, while In the mountains conceived a murderous scheme and killed in cold blood the man who closely resembled him and returned to the settlement. He took the name of the man whom he is said to have murdered, and said that Hilliman had been accidentally shot dead and buried in the

In due time Mrs. Hiliman made claim to the life insurance companies in which her husband had been insured for $80,000. The insurance people became suspicious and began investigation. The remains of the man whom Hiliman had murdered were exhumed, and it was then discovered that they were not the remains of Hiliman. Mrs. Hiliman instituted legal proceedings in Topeka, Kan., her home, to recover the amount of insurance.

The case was carried from one court to another, until she secured judgment for the principal, interest and attorney fees in the Supreme Court of the United States. According to the order of the Court, the judgment must be satisfied by the end of this year.

During all this time the insurance companies have kept detectives on the

He was followed to Australia and other foreign countries, and a reward of $15,000 was offered for his apprehension, dead or alive. On Oct 4 last, Under Sheriff Gemili arrived in this territory from Colorado and interested Finley in the case.

Gemnil having learned that Hillman was in Sonora he and Finley took the murderer's trail at Magdalena, Sonora, and followed him to Altara, Sonora, and followed him to Altara, Sonora, thence to Prescott, Ariz, Mexico City, Old Glory Camp, and then to Salvation Army camp in the Hua chucas, where he was arrested.

Hilman denied that he was the right man when told by the officers what they wanted him for. He was taken to Tombstone, where he is held, pending the arrival of requisition papers from Kansas.

STINER AS A DRESSMAKER'S MODEL

with interest, at the rate of $100 a week. Featherson was discharged from the position of artist and designer by the firm of Keefus & Hoffman, publishers of a fashion magazine. Lawyer James Patterson appeared for Featherson and Henry Levy for the publishers.

The reason alleged for Featherson's dismissal was that his designs were "old and stale." Yet it was proved by no less an authority than Charles Mitchell that they were entirely up to date, and that they were entirely up to date, and that Keefus had boasted of this to Mitchell. Keefus could not deny having said so, but urged that he only said it because he and Mitchell were competitors.

Keefus became disgusted with Featherson because he persisted in using nar-

Keefus became disgusted with Featherson because he persisted in using narrow skirts and putting in too many gores and not enough gussets, and besides, he was always making cuts on the blas, when a man with half an eye could see they ought to be cut straight.

"Your Honor knows," said Lawyer Levy, "that ladles are wearing their skirts very full, and"—

"He knows nothing of the sort," interrupted Justice Stiner. "My wife buys her own dresses, but it keeps me broke paying for them." He declined to accept a set of fashion plates to take home, saying he was not in favor of placings the temptations before women.

Before the case closed Witness Mitchell used Justice Stiner as a model to show how shoulders and hips were built, up. Decision was reserved.

JAMES SMALL'S SCHOOL NIGHTS.

He's Forty, a Longshoreman, and His Classmates Tried to Thrash Him.

ames Small, a longshoreman, who lives at No. 312 East Thirty-fourth street, has for two years been a scholar at the night classes in Grammar School No. 26, in West Thirtieth street, near Sixth avenue. During all that time he has been a victim of petty persecution from the boys, who teased and annoyed him at every opportunity.

Tuesday night Small got a skull and cross-bones, letter because he had apanked a boy who bothered him some nights ago. Three boys, one a young man, in fact, pitched into him when school was over, it was s hot fight. E. C. Kalinacowski, twenty, of No. 28 West Thirty-fifth street, got a hiack eye, and he and Small were arrested. The police sergeant lectured them both. They shook hands and left apparently friends.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A despatch from Sloux City, In., says that two entiremen who were present there in the interests of the prosecution in the criminal cases against Bob Kneebs, now in Germany, awaiting rrial on the charge of "ringing in" horses in the races there under Sciitious names, have returned to that city from a trip made to ascertain whether the mare Bethel was in this country. They say they have visited all points where it was supposed Bethel was, and have made an honest, but unsuccessful effort to find her. They declare that the mare is not in the country; that he mare Kneehe entered in the German Circuit as "Netlle Kneehe" in Bethel, so far as they know, and that the pictures of this mare are good ones of Bethel.

NEW JERSEY GLEANINGS.

William A. Righter, representing a number of citizens, has submitted charges against the old Board of Freeholders of Essex County, allegting that "sugar" was used in a deal in the repairing of Bloomfield avenue between the Board and the Traction Company, by which the Traction Company benefited. Mr. Highter will not explain what he means by "sugar," but the new Board of Freeholders will investigate his charges. The State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, is in sension at Trenton to-day discussing the Township School law, passed by the Legislature. The City Council of Bayone will investigate the charges made by citizens that the town paid M. Myer & Son, of Newark too much money for horses for the Street Department. It is alleged that $500 was recently paid for a pair of horses which are not worth more than $200.

The authorities of Atlantic City believe that the man whose body was found in the woods near that place a few days ago did not kill himself, but was murdered. They are investigating.

The latter alieges that she and Mulry were married and have one child. Mulry's version, however, is that his wife wanted him to agree to a divorce and to marry the sixter, which he reduced to do, although he admits being the father of her child. Mrs. Vausene says Mulry was only her boarder. The tangle will probably be straightened out in the hearing of Mulry's petition for an interest in Mrs. Vausene's property.

Lucien Bonneur, President of the league, introduced Dr. Depew, who spoke on the praiseworthy efforts and achievements of the society, and reviewed the history of organized charity in the United States. Dr. Depew paid a glowing tribute to the memory of Sir Moses Monteflore, and told of his struggle for the last sixty years of his life in behalf of his co-religionists, and said that while Napoleon had written his name in blood, and boasted he had only killed a million of men, Sir Moses Monteflore would be remembered for ages to come as the man who had saved millions of his fellowmen from persecution.

After the address the hall was cleared of the seats and the floor was given over to the young people for dancing.

The success of the reception was such that another was announced for the 23d of January. At this time the programme will include a fan drill by 250 young women in costume, Music will be furnished by Gilmores' Twenty-second Regiment Band and a string orchestra of sixty pieces.
